

In honor of Black History Month,
the U.S. Embassy invites you to American Movie Night
featuring the first part of the PBS series 'Eyes on the Prize'

Awakenings & Fighting Back

Awakenings (1954-1956) Emmett Till ... Rosa Parks ... Martin Luther King, Jr. Rare reflections open the door to understanding America's struggle for equality. Curtis Jones, Coretta Scott King, and other key witnesses describe the extraordinary role ordinary people played in shaping the civil rights movement.

Fighting Back (1957 – 1962) Little Rock ... "Ole Miss" ... the 1954 Supreme Court Decision. Unforgettable images of the battle lines drawn in the South come to life through the eyes of those who were on the frontlines. See states' rights loyalists and federal authorities collide in the struggle to integrate Central High School.

Date: Friday, February 1
Time: 19:15 hrs.
Venue: Eddie Wesselszaal – CCS –
Henck Arronstraat 112-114
Admittance: Free and open to all public

Return February 8 and 15 for screenings of the rest of the series

Friday, February 1
Awakenings
&
Fighting Back

Movie night starts at 19.15 hrs.
The event is free and open to the general public.
No tickets required.
The Eddie Wesselszaal is located at the Cultural Center of Suriname (CCS)
Henck Arronstraat 112-114

